

The Children of the World

are following the way of the Little Shepherds of Fatima, into the Presence of the “Hidden Jesus.”

The Order of Service for the Worldwide Children’s Eucharistic Holy Hour, as outlined in the program, is approved according to the order of service used at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, in Washington DC.

This order may be modified to accommodate your particular circumstances. For example, in many places throughout the world it may not be possible to expose Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament or to have a procession with our Blessed Mother’s statue. Nonetheless, adoring Jesus truly present in the tabernacle is exactly why the “Little Shepherds of Fatima” referred to Jesus as the “Hidden Jesus,” truly present and yet hidden from our eyes.

This order of service will be simplified further in a “Visit with the Hidden Jesus” which will soon be available in booklet form. It will be a modified version of that used for the Worldwide Children’s Eucharistic Holy Hour and is meant to be used for short Visits during school hours, or a Holy Hour in your parish church or chapel.
